ELIGIBLE PARTICIPANTS MUST:

► Be a resident of the Village of Lansing
► Have a valid Lansing library card or be eligible to receive a library card
► Be confined to their residence either temporarily due to illness or accident, or permanently due to age, disability or other mobility issues.
  • This includes nursing homes and assisted living facilities as well as caregivers or homebound residents.
  • We also serve late-term or post-pregancy mothers.
  • In most circumstances, if a resident drives, they would not be considered eligible for home delivery.

Library@Home is a service provided at no cost to the patron. The library's borrowing limits will apply to home delivery participants. Participants will be charged the replacement cost for materials that are lost and/or damaged while in their care.

Materials will be delivered to and picked up from each participant's residence. Library staff will not enter the participant's residence unless accompanied by another staff member. Staff will not provide assistance with activities of daily living or advice on financial or personal matters.

Library staff may recommend suspension of home delivery service if any of the following conditions exist.

► Any person in the home presents threatening, obscene, or abusive language, gestures, or images.
► Any person in the home harasses a library representative.
► Any person in the home engaging in illegal activity.
► Any person in the home exhibiting signs of illness that may endanger the health of a library representative.
► The condition of the home and/or property is unsafe or unsanitary.

The Lansing Public Library has the right to refuse or terminate this service to any individual who does not meet the terms and requirements as defined above.

Every two weeks the library delivers materials to homebound Lansing residents.
Participants can choose to request specific titles or let our expert staff select materials based upon their interests.

Are there any genres you'd like to try but don't know where to start?

Are there any particular subject areas you would like to read about such as sports, politics, WWII, travel, etc.?

Are there any authors or series that you follow religiously? What's the most recent title you've read by that author or in that series?

What's the last really great book you've read? Why did you like it?

Are there any books or genres you've disliked? Do you know why you don't like them?

Anything else we should know that will help us recommend books you like? Any specific books you would like to request?
