

Cashless Transactions

In light of health concerns for patrons and staff, Lansing Public Library will no longer handle cash transactions. Our copiers, fax/scanners and printers will accept cash as before accepting small bills and coins. There will be no hand to hand transactions involving cash. Please bring change with you if required or small bills that our machines accept. Staff will have no change. You may also make a payment with a credit card or debit card. Checks and money orders may only be used to make a payment to your library account. They cannot be used to pay for fax/scans, prints or copies. You may also pay bills securely online through your library account at <https://bit.ly/3cCLjNw> Money orders may be purchased at the Post Office for $1.20 each. Checks and Money Orders should be made payable to Lansing Public Library. This policy will help us in our goal of providing a safe facility for all.
